Claim €: 80

Prior to claiming, players should familiarise themselves with the Cluain Tarbh Medical Expenses Policy. Reimbursement for A&E Attendance will be €80 regardless of whether the player attends the public health service or private health service. Ancillary costs arising out of private attendance (e.g. x-rays) will not be covered nor will private medical consultations. Reimbursement for other medical expenses arising out of injuries may be claimed through the central GAA Injury Scheme. Initial notification must be provided to insurers within 30/60 days of the injury so it is important to contact the claims administrator as soon as the injury takes place as he will need to log claim within timeframe or else claim will not be processed.
